Waste Reduction Hero Sarah Morgan

Regional Waste Management
Coordinator, and Owner of Skerwink Organic Farm

Our province's newest Regional Waste Management Coordinator has earned the nickname "The Midnight Raker" for her around-the-clock commitment to organic waste reduction. By encouraging her community to send their organic waste to her organic farm instead of the dump, Sarah diverts 800lbs of organic waste from the landfill every month. The name of her beloved town, Bonavista, translates to "oh happy sight" and a site that charming needs a waste reduction hero like Sarah Morgan.
