

preserving history & the environment

is our greener future.

Waste Reduction Hero,
Peter Laracy
Capital Projects Manager
for Cupids 400 Inc.

The Cupids Legacy Centre celebrates the past, and thanks to Peter Laracy, it safeguards the future too. Peter has trained his whole colony in waste reduction practices, from staff to board members, and they've travelled to conferences and other facilities to learn new ways of waste reduction. When catering to visitors, they use reusable dinnerware, not plastic, and as good environmental pioneers, they donate their used goods to others and prefer to fill their settlement with the historical charm of used or recycled goods instead of needlessly new ones.
