Waste Reduction Heroes,
Julia Bloomquist
& Marina Schirelli
The Sprout Restaurant

Julia and Marina are the owners of the Sprout restaurant in St. John's and always bring a green mindset to the table to reduce waste. They hired a local organic farming cooperative to collect and compost their organic waste, and see to it that all recyclable materials are properly dealt with. To eliminate unnecessary packaging, they make all their food from scratch, shop in bulk, and have replaced plastic take-out containers with biodegradable ones.
